Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Aug. 18.—The Ogden tabernacle choir, of 25 members, left this morning over the Oregon Short Line with Traveling Passenger Agent A. B. Moseley in charge. Their special train consisted of a baggage car, two day coaches and four Pullmans. The choir will be crowded to some extent, but they went away in the happiest of humors. Mr. Fred J. Keisel did not accompany the choir, but will follow. He was at the depot for the farewell, and was loud- ly cheered by the young ladies of the choir, three cheers being given him as the train pulled out.

FAINT DAWN OF LIBERTY IN RUSSIA

Emperor Authorizes the Creation of a National Elective Assembly.

IT WILL ACT ONLY IN AN ADVISORY CAPACITY

Imperial Proclamation Will Be Read in All the Churches Today.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 12.—Emperor Nicholas has today announced the grant to the people of Russia of a national consultative assembly, to be formed by elected representatives from the whole of Russia. The imperial manifesto, which is published simultaneously here and in Moscow, and which will be read in all the churches of the empire, is dated at Peterhof today and is as follows:

Autocracy a Moral Force.
"The empire of Russia is formed and strengthened by the indestructible solidarity of the Emperor with the people and of the people with the Emperor. This concord of Emperor and people is the great moral force which has created Russia in the course of centuries and all attacks, and has constituted up to the present time a pledge of unity, independence, integrity, material well-being and intellectual development."

The February Manifesto.
"In our manifesto of February 24, 1905, we called to a close understanding all the faithful sons of the fatherland in order to protect the organization of the state by establishing on a firm basis the domestic life of the empire, and then we devoted hours of anxious work to coordinating elective public institutions with governmental authorities and of removing the disagreements existing between them which had retarded so disastrously on the normal course of our national life."

Object Long in View.
"The autocratic Emperors, our ancestors, constantly had that object in view, and the time has come to follow out their good intentions and to satisfy the just representatives from the whole of Russia to take constant and active part in the elaboration of the laws, thereby attaching to the higher state institutions a special creative labor and discussion of measures and with the examination of the state budget."

Such a Name.
"It is for this reason that, while preserving the fundamental law regarding the autocratic power, we have deemed it well to form a gosudarstvennaya (imperial) assembly, the members of which shall approve the regulations for elections to this assembly, extending the validity of these laws to the whole territory of the empire. Such a change is only as may be considered necessary, in the case of some regions in which special conditions obtain."

Finland Is Excited.
"As regards the participation in the legislative work of the gosudarstvennaya (imperial) assembly, the Grand Duchy of Finland on questions concerning the empire in general and the Grand Duchy in particular, we will take special measures."

"At the same time we have ordered the Minister of the Interior to submit immediately for our approbation regulations for the elections to the assembly, so that deputies from city governments and from the military province of the Don may be able to assemble not later than the middle of January, 1906."

Further Grants Promised.
"We reserve to ourselves entirely the care of perfecting the organization of the gosudarstvennaya (imperial) assembly, and when the course of events shall have shown the necessity for changes corresponding completely to the needs of the times and the welfare of the empire, we shall not fail to give at the proper moment the necessary directions."

Wants Worthy Men.
"We are convinced that those who shall have been elected by the confidence of the whole people and who will thus be called upon to participate in the legislative work of the empire, will show themselves in the eyes of all Russia to be worthy of the imperial trust in the virtue of which they have been invited to co-operate in this great work, and that in perfect harmony with other institutions and authorities of the state, established by us, they will contribute profitably and zealously to our labors for the well-being of our common mother, Russia, and for the strengthening of the unity, the security and the tranquility and prosperity of the people."

Invokes Divine Blessing.
"In invoking the blessing of the Lord on the labors of the institutions established by us and with unshakable confidence in the grace of God and in the infallibility of the great historical destinies reserved by divine providence for our beloved fatherland, we firmly hope that with the help of God Almighty and with the combined efforts of all his sons, Russia will triumphantly overcome all her ordeals through which she is now passing, and will be born again in the strength, the greatness and the glory of her history, extending through a thousand years."

"Given at Peterhof, this nineteenth day of August, in the year of grace, 1905, and the eleventh year of our reign."

"NICHOLAS."
Powers of the Assembly.
Many of the main features governing the elections to and the proceedings and powers of the National Assembly have already been cabled in these dispatches. The paragraph of the first section sets out the purpose of the new legislative body as follows:

"The assembly is established for the preliminary study and discussion of legislative propositions which, according to the fundamental laws, go up through the council of the empire to the supreme autocratic authority."

Paragraphs two and three explain the composition and organization of the assembly, which is to be formed of members elected by the population of the Russian empire, in accordance with the election regulations."

Five-Year Terms.
The term of the assembly is to be five years, but it can be dissolved by the Emperor. There is to be a general session, but the Emperor will also meet by sections, the length of the sessions being determined by the Emperor. The President and other officials are to be elected by the members.

Paragraph nineteen of section three provides: "Members of the assembly shall enjoy freedom in exchanging their opinions on matters within the competence of the body and are not to be responsible to the electors."

Several sections are devoted to the exemptions to be enjoyed by the members and the reasons for and the occasions on which they can be deprived of their membership. Ministers and chiefs of departments cannot be members of the assembly, but they can attend its sessions and make explanations or delegate that right to others. The assembly can demand explanations from the Ministers.

Competence of the Douma.
Section five deals with the competence of the assembly, which is as follows:
(A) All questions relating to new laws or to the modification, amplification or temporary suspension or repeal of existing laws, and also relating to appointments made on the staff of Ministers and the expenditures thereby involved.
(B) Departmental, ministerial and national budgets, also other expenditures not provided therein.
(C) The financial report of the controller of the empire.
(D) The appropriation of any portion of the revenues or property of the State.
(E) The construction of railways by the State.
(F) Questions regarding the organization of stock companies involving exceptions from existing legislation.
(G) Matters submitted by imperial decree."

Matter of Taxation.
The assembly has jurisdiction in the matter of taxation in the provinces where there are no Zemstvos; also in the raising of the rate above that fixed by the Zemstvos and City Councils.

The assembly will have initiative in the matter of appeal, or modification of old, and the adoption of new laws, but the fundamental laws of administration are not to be touched by it.

The Ministers and chiefs of departments and the Secretary of the empire will submit questions to the assembly for discussion.

Public Is Barred.
Many sections are devoted to the method of procedure. The public will not be admitted to the sessions. Representatives of the newspapers will be admitted by the president to open sessions, but not to the closed sessions; the latter being ordered by the general session or by the president, or at the request of a Minister when he has a question to submit involving a national secret. Reports of the meetings may be published by the president.

Course of Bills.
After passing, the assembly bills will go to the council of the empire and then to the Emperor. Should the assembly and the council of the empire disagree, the question at issue will be submitted to a joint session. Should this bring no conclusion, the question again will be submitted to the council of the Emperor. Should the Emperor call attention to defects in the consideration of any specific question, the council of the empire shall appoint a date on which the assembly must reconsider the question, failing which the council of the empire will act alone.

Takes Thirty to Present Bill.
Legislative bills may be introduced when endorsed by thirty members. Should a Minister differ with the assembly respecting a bill, and the assembly in general session pass the bill by a two-thirds majority, the bill in question will be referred to the Emperor.

Relating to the electoral system, the project states that elections are holdable, firstly, in the province and territories; secondly, in the principal towns which are named, in Poland, Siberia, the Caucasus, Turkestan, and some provinces special regulations will govern the elections. The total membership will be 412, of which 25 will be returned by the towns.

The conditions in the provinces and territories will be effected by provincial electoral colleges, chosen, first, by the landowners; secondly, by urban electors; and thirdly, by delegates of the peasantry. Women, men under 25 years of age, students, sailors, soldiers, bankrupts and those convicted of crimes or desertion shall not have the right to vote. Governors and the police cannot vote when they are exercising their functions. Landowners, mine-owners and owners of industrial establishments of a minimum value of $500, and clergy owning lands are qualified to vote in the electoral assemblies.

In the urban electoral assemblies, owners of lands of a minimum value of $750 and of owners of industrial properties of the first category are qualified. The peasantry electoral assembly shall consist of two delegates from each canton, chosen by the peasants belonging to the canton, and agricultural corporations. In cities, which are named, owners of real estate of the value of $500, and owners of industrial enterprises of the first category, paying taxes or rent of the tenth category, are qualified to participate in the electoral assemblies. The urban and provincial assemblies will vote for delegates to the assembly by a secret ballot, which also applies to the subsidiary elections.

TAGGART RELIES ON HOSPITAL RECORDS

Attorneys Claim They Will Prove the Case Against Mrs. Taggart.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 18.—The case of Capt. Taggart now centers about the records of Christ hospital in Cincinnati. If these records can be produced, Taggart's attorneys claim his case is made.

Line of the Defense.
The army men and Mrs. Taggart will in all likelihood not take the stand until Tuesday, at least. An indication of the drift the defense will take was dropped by Attorney Symer today in a chance remark. This is that Taggart was not in his right mind after he came back from the Philippines. There is no belief that Taggart has been discharged after a hearing before a United States Commissioner at Forsythe. The evidence disclosed that the shooting was purely accidental.

Letters as Evidence.
His letters already introduced will be used as the chief evidence of this.

Squaw Killed by Accident.
HELENA, Mont., Aug. 18.—George Walters, a trader on the Cheyenne Indian reservation, arrested a few days ago on the charge of killing Mrs. Russell, an Indian woman, with a shotgun, has been discharged after a hearing before a United States Commissioner at Forsythe. The evidence disclosed that the shooting was purely accidental.

M. P. HELD FOR PLANNING MURDER

Hugh Watt Proposed, It Is Alleged, to Chloroform His Divorced Wife.

HIRED A DETECTIVE TO HELP IN THE CRIME

The Couple Had Been in Litigation Over Division of Property.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—A great sensation has been created by the arrest of Hugh Watt, a dancer and formerly a member of Parliament for the Camlachie division of Glasgow, on the charge of attempting to procure a private detective to assist in the murder of his former wife.

Detective Marshall testified in a police court today that Watt offered him $500 if he would induce the woman to come to Watt's flat, where he proposed to kill her by the administration of chloroform, and then to remove the small of chloroform with peppermint. Watt was remanded for trial on bail of $200. The police found both chloroform and peppermint in Watt's apartments.

Married a Divorcee.
Watt was in the divorce court some years ago when his wife sued for a divorce, the correspondence being Lady Violet Beauchamp, daughter of the late Lord and Lady Roden, and the divorced wife of Sir Reginald Beauchamp. Watt has since married Lady Violet Beauchamp.

Quarrel Over Property.
Since the granting of the divorce Watt and his former wife have been in the law courts regarding their marriage settlements, and much bitterness has resulted from this litigation. A couple of weeks ago the parties appeared in a police court. Watt charging his former wife with having assaulted and violently elected him from her house, where he said he had for the purpose of trying to compromise their business disagreements.
